New PTO Website + Directory

We're excited to announce our new PTO website! Bookmark it here:
<https://countrytrailsppto.wixsite.com/ctpto>

Our new site is your go-to place for all things Country Trails PTO, including: upcoming events, volunteer opportunities, PTO resources, important links, and more!

Be sure to check out CT Family Access, a private section of the website just for current Country Trails families. There you'll find family-only resources like our Family Directory and Staff Favorites. Register here: CT Family Access

We hope the new site makes it easier than ever to stay informed and get involved!

Calling All Crafters

Do you or your student craft, create, bake, or make something special? We'd love to have you join us! Applications are OPEN for Handmade Holiday, the Country Trails PTO Craft Fair & Bake Sale!

We're looking for:

- Crafters & Makers to showcase and sell their handmade goods
- CT Student Makers ready to share and sell their creations
- Local Small Businesses to take part in our Small Business Showcase

Whether you sew, paint, crochet, create jewelry, make décor, design crafts, or have another talent to share, Handmade Holiday is a great opportunity to be part of this fun community event!

Applications and registration forms are available here:

<https://countrytrailsppto.square.site/handmade-holiday-craft-fair>

Spots are limited, so don't wait to sign up! We can't wait to highlight all the amazing talent in our community.

Fall Raffle Coming Soon!

After a successful inaugural year, the CT PTO Fall Raffle is back!

You and your student will have the chance to win some awesome perks and one-of-a-kind experiences in and around school this year. From lunches with CT staff to reserved parking spots and even a limo ride to school, there are some seriously fun prizes up for grabs!

Keep an eye out for all the raffle details coming soon!
